Case No.: 16-cv-373

DEFENDANT ACCOUNT DISCOVERY SYSTEMS, LLC’S BRIEF IN RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF’S MOTION FOR DISCOVERY CONFIDENTIALTY ORDER

On August 23, 2016, the Plaintiff moved this Court for entry of a Discovery Confidentiality Order attached to the Plaintiff’s Motion as Exhibit 2. (Doc. 17). Defendant Account Discovery Systems, LLC (“ADS”) did stipulate to the proposed Discovery Confidentiality Order attached to the Plaintiff’s Motion as Exhibit 2 and has no objection to the Court’s entering of same.

Plaintiff’s allegations that ADS has been dilatory or unwilling to stipulate to the Discovery Confidentiality Order lacks merit. ADS provided the proposed Discovery Confidentiality Order (Exhibit 2) to the Plaintiff who agreed to its terms. Either party could have filed a motion ask the Court to enter the Order and because ADS did not file the motion with the Court on the date the Plaintiff wanted it to be filed is not supportive of Plaintiff’s conclusions that ADS has “steadfastly refused to cooperate in any timely manner.”
